DETAILED ACTION

Claims

1. Claims 1-20 are pending.

Rejection Maintained

2. The obviousness-type double patenting rejection of claims 1-20 as unpatentable over claims 19, 23-25 and 27-38 of US 5,752,934 (to Campbell et al) in view of US 4,187,390 (to Gore) is maintained for reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed in the 11 April 2005 response have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The argument that the terminal disclaimer filed on 29 May 2003 concerning US 5,972,441 "effectively disclaims patent term to a date prior to the Campbell et al reference" is noted.

However, the function of a terminal disclaimer is not just to disclaim the portion of a patent's term that would extend beyond the life of other patent(s). A disclaimer also prevents harassment by multiple transferees, by referring to applications/patents that recite similar claims to those patented in a particular case.

The office's policy is discussed in section 4 of the 10 January 2005 office action.

The argument that the claims of this application are distinct from those of Campbell because they are broader than Campbell's claims is also noted.

However, the broader concept claimed here is suggested by the Campbell claims and, taken with Gore's teachings, the invention claimed here is obvious over Campbell.

Final Rejection

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

5. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
